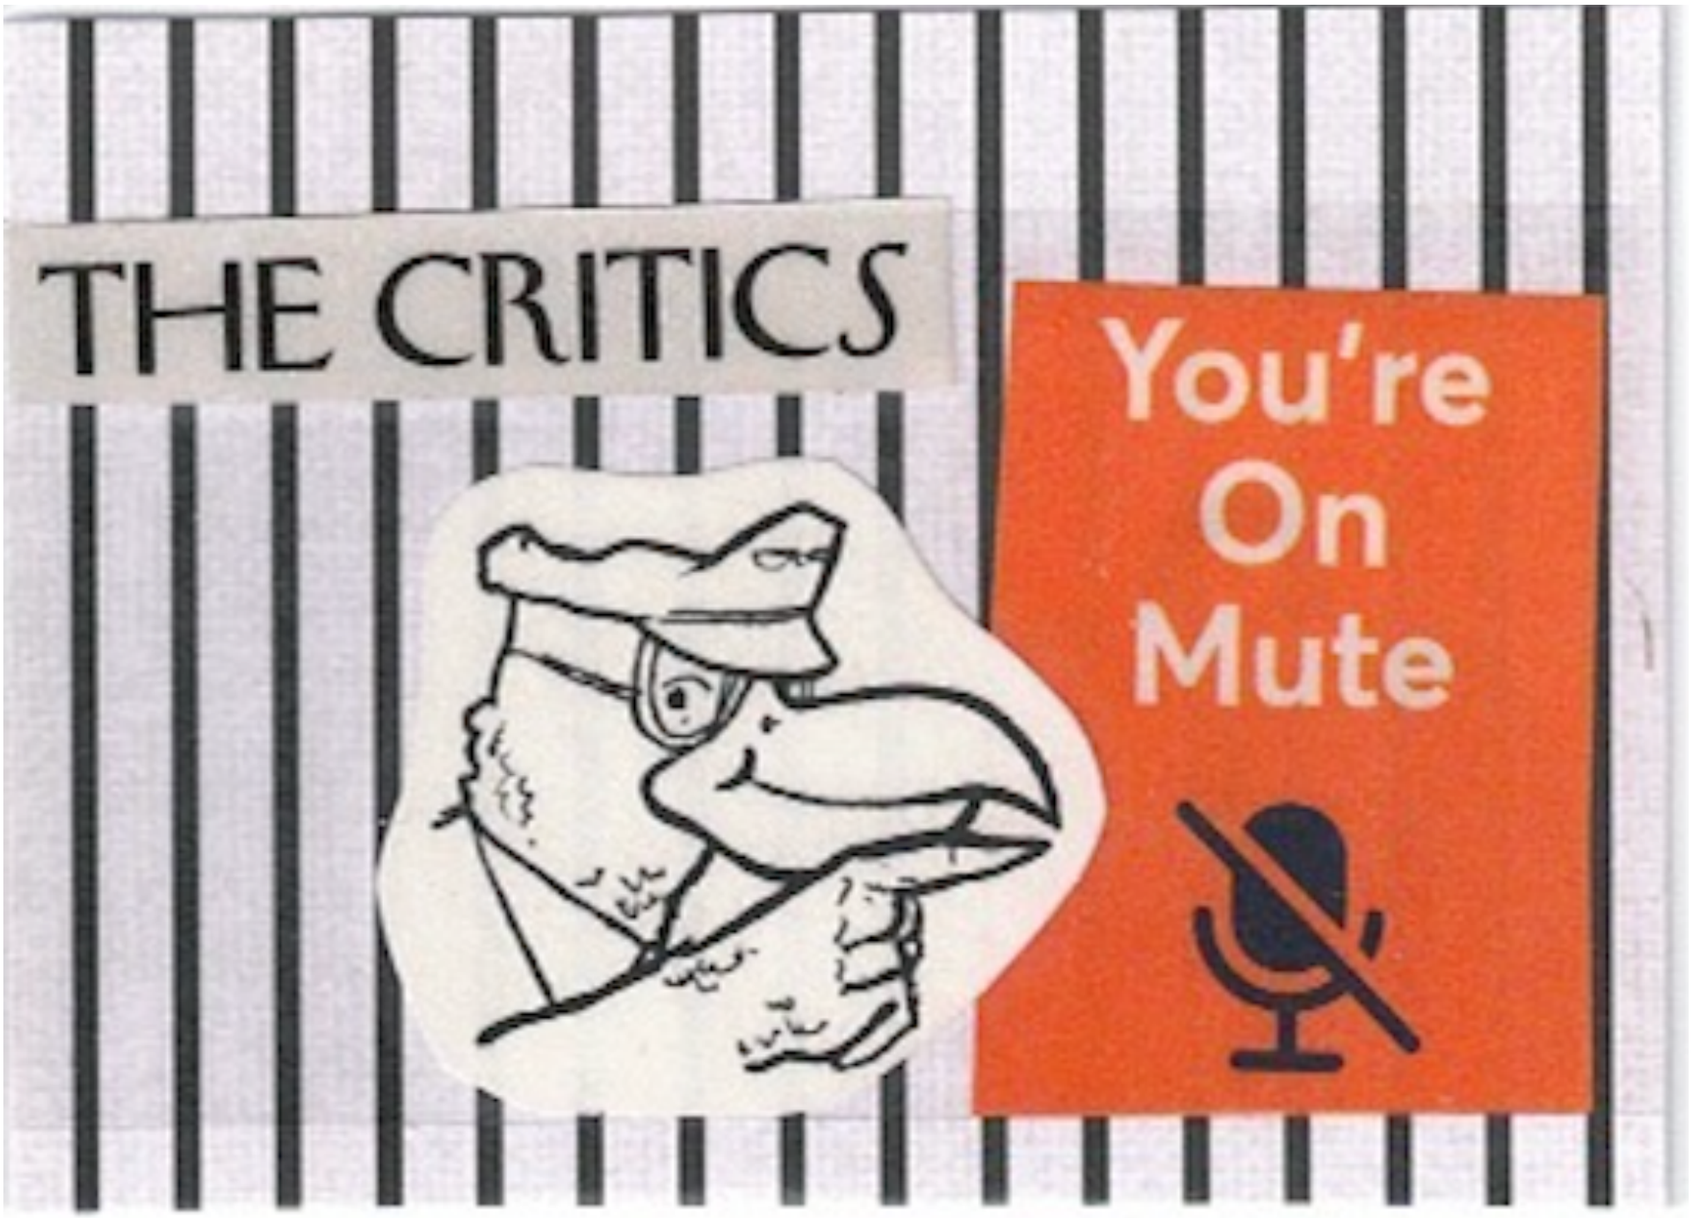
DON'T TRUST
THE TELEVISION



THE CRITICS
You're On Mute

conscious, thinking people, Homo sapiens,
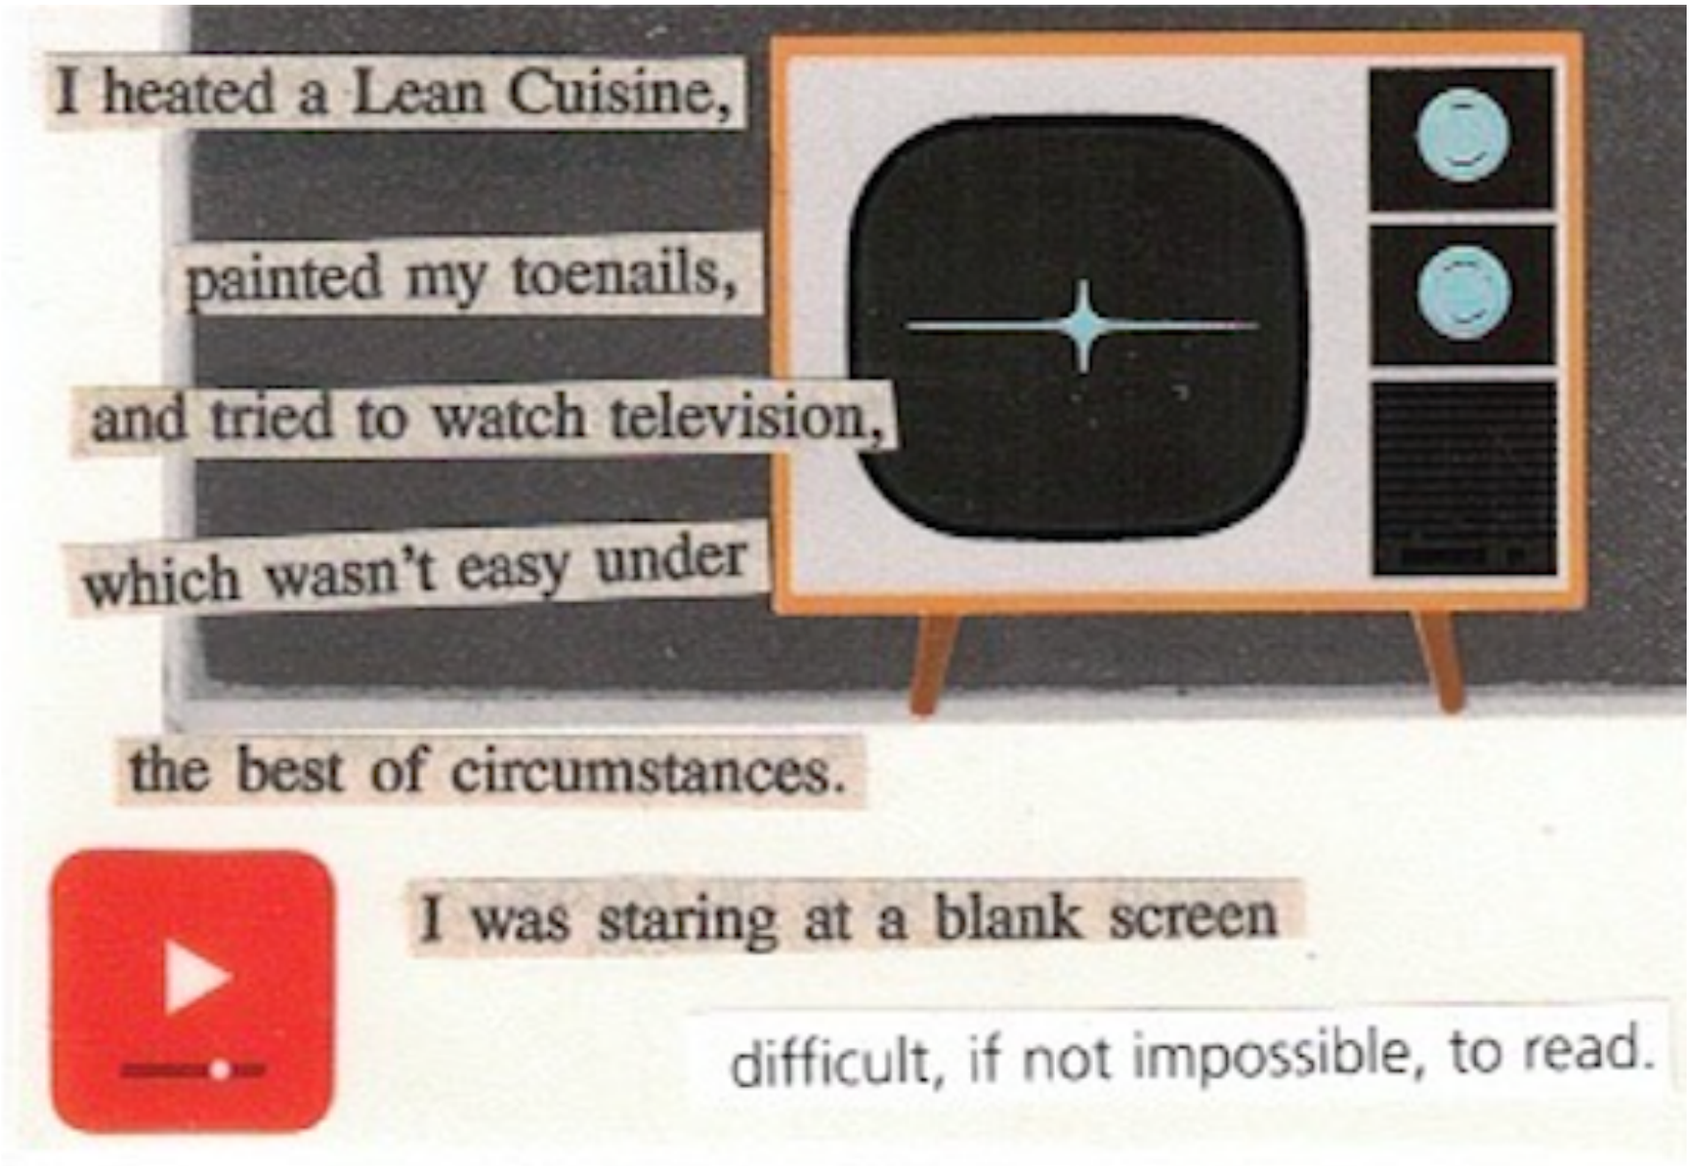
did not so much matter.

Don't trust the TV when it tells you
you like something you don't like.



I heated a Lean Cuisine,
painted my toenails,
and tried to watch television,
which wasn't easy under
the best of circumstances.
I was staring at a blank screen
difficult, if not impossible, to read.

Barn's burnt down
Now
I can see the moon
